

Society for Mining, Metallurgy
& Exploration®

Washington DC Section

The Washington DC Section of SME proudly presents

Kevin Gottschalk – Inorganic scale and deposit control in mineral processing.

An overview of the challenges mineral processors face using water successfully to avoid scale and corrosion problems. Additional subjects include the chemistry and best practices to avoid un-planned shutdowns due to calcium carbonate, calcium sulfate, and other inorganic deposits commonly found in mineral processing facilities.

Date: Tuesday – November 10, 2015
Time: Social Hour 11:30 - 11:50 am
Section Business/Luncheon 12:00 - 1:30 pm
Location: Clyde's Restaurant at Tyson's Corner
8332 Leesburg Pike, Vienna, Virginia 22182
Choice: Roasted Chicken, Salmon, or Vegetarian Ravioli
Cost: $27 for DC Section Members; $32 for guests
RSVP: Please reply by email to George K. Schuler at gkschuler@verizon.net by noon November 6, 2015

About the Speaker

Kevin Gottschalk is the Technical Mining Director at Chemtreat, supporting the mining and process water treatment business and other industries including steel/refining/district energy and is based in Richmond, Virginia. Prior to Virginia, Kevin was a resident of Shanghai, PRC as Asia Pacific Technical Director and Ashland China integration Manager. He has 35 years Industrial Water Treatment experience with ChemTreat, Ashland Chemical, Olin Chemical. Kevin is also a chlorine dioxide expert and was intimately involved in the gas phase chlorine dioxide anthrax decontamination of the Senate and Post Office buildings in DC and Trenton, NJ in 2002. Kevin Gottschalk obtained his B.S. in Chemistry/Economics; from Rockhurst University located in Kansas City, Missouri.

